

Rob Dickson, Director of Industry and Destination, Visit Scotland

Rob is a highly experienced individual who has held senior roles in SBC and before that in the Royal Borough of Kingston Upon Thames (RBK).

More recently he was pivotal in setting up the South of Scotland Enterprise Agency (SOSE), he has led on economic development in the Scottish Borders helping to deliver the Borderlands Inclusive Growth Deal, and has also worked closely with stakeholders and public agencies across Scotland.

Prior to SBC and RBK, Rob worked at the Energy Saving Trust and has also carried out military service for three years with The Royal Scots.

